Thank You Lord, for Your presence with us. Thank You for blessing us. Thank You for protecting and guiding us. Thank You for healing us. Most especially - thank You for loving us may our love for You continue to grow.

This month we celebrate our country and the ideals it was founded upon. We pray that we may be a nation that believes in goodness and doing what is right for all people. May we continue to appreciate the freedom that we have been given and the responsibilities it brings. May we protect, cherish and uphold all of life as a sacred gift from our God.

Blessed Mother please be near all of the brides who will be married this year. Guide them, protect them and give them hearts that are filled with love for their husbands. Saint Joseph please be near all of the grooms that will be married this year. Guide them, protect them and also give them hearts that are filled with love for their wives. Lord, bless these special unions and help them to grow in their love all the days of their lives.

The Missionaries of Peace will begin to meet on Thursday, July 5th for an evening of pray for our Neighborhood. We will then go out into the streets surrounding the Church asking what people need prayer for beginning on July 12th until August 23rd. Please pray for this special ministry!

We continue to ask the Lord for help as we strive to be financially stable and grow as a Faith Family. Lord, help us to fill our pews! Please join us in praying for this special intention during our Holy Hours on the weekend of July 14 and 15th!

We pray for our Spanish Community as they will be in a Charismatic Retreat on July 20th through the 22nd. May the Holy Spirit come upon them and may the Lord give them countless blessings.
