Bambinelli Sunday

Every year on the third Sunday of Advent bus loads of women, men and children come to the Vatican. They come with great excitement AND they come with Bambinelli, the figure of Jesus that is placed in their manger scene at home. The Pope then comes to this gathering, prays the Angelus with the people, and then blesses each of the Bambinelli. What a wonderful celebration it is! What a sight it must be to see all of the different figures of Jesus - from big to small, from ornate to simple, from plastic to ceramic! While each Bambinelli represented is different, the hope in Jesus is the same!

We are going to reenact this wonderful celebration by asking you to please bring your Baby Jesus and your manger scene to be blessed here at Holy Apostles on the weekend of December 14 and 15. We will have our own beautiful and wonderful Bambinelli Sunday!
