Reflection on Baptism from St. Hippolytus

The Father of immortality sent His immortal Son and Word into the world; He came to us to cleanse us with water and the Spirit. To give us new birth that would make our bodies and souls immortal, He breathed into us the Spirit of Life and armed us with in corruptibility. Now if we become immortal, we shall also be divine; and if we become divine after rebirth in baptism through water and the Holy Spirit, we shall also be coheirs with Christ after the resurrection from the dead.

Therefore, in a herald's voice I cry: Let the peoples of every nation come and receive the immortality that flows from baptism. This is the water that is linked to the Spirit, the water that irrigates paradise, makes the earth fertile, gives growth to plants, and brings forth living creatures. In short, this is the water by which we receive new birth and life, the water in which even Christ was baptized, the water into which the Holy Spirit descended in the form of a dove.

Whoever goes down into these waters of rebirth with faith renounces the devil and pledges himself or herself to Christ. He or she repudiates the enemy and confesses that Christ is God, throws off his or her servitude, and is raised to the status of a son or a daughter of God. He or she comes up from baptism resplendent as the sun, radiant in purity, but above all, comes up as a son or daughter of God and a coheir with Christ! To Him and to His most Holy and Life-Giving Spirit, be glory and power, now and forever! Amen!
